Vienna, January 3, N. S.

ON Monday laſt, the Emperour being preſent in Council, Field Marſhal Count Harrach appeared and took the uſual Oath as Preſident of the Aulick Council of War. After the Council was riſen, his Excellency was conducted by Count Sinzendorf, the Emperour's Great Chamberlain, in a Coach with Six Horſes, to the Apartment of the Palace where the Council of War is held: At his alighting from the Coach, his Excellency was received by Felt Marſhal Kevenhuller, Vice Preſident of the ſaid Council of War, and by the other Felt Marſhals, General Officers, and Counſellors of War; who accompanied him to the Room where the Council is held. There Count Sinzendorf making a Speech on the Occaſion, preſented him to the Board, in the Name of his Imperial Majeſty, in the Quality of Preſident, and he took his Place accordingly. Then the Vice Preſident Kevenhuller made a ſhort Speech to him on the Part of the Council, to which his Excelleney returned an obliging Anſwer, and received each Councellor's Compliments. And then the whole Council accompanied Count Sinzendorf back to his Coach. The Emperour has given the Command of the vacant Regiment of Foot of Furſtenbuſch to Prince Waldeck, that of Jorger of Dragoons to Baron Romers, and that of Dragoons of Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria to Count Preyſing. The Count de Perouſe, the Bavarian Miniſter, who is order'd hither from the Court of Munich, having choſen to come down the River at this bad Seaſon of the Year, is not yet arrived, but is expected daily. The Empreſs, who has been indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt, with a Cold, is ſo well recover'd, that it is hoped ſhe will be able to appear in Publick To-morrow. The Advices from Hungary, bring favourable Accounts of the Diminution of the Peſtilential Sickneſs in thoſe Parts.

GRAFTON.

Whitehall, December 29, 1738.

Whereas at a Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, held for the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, on Friday the 10th Day of November last at the Old Bailey, James Buchanan was convicted of a Murder committed upon the High Seas, and was ordered to be Executed for the same on Wednesday the 20th Day of this Instant December, at Execution Dock in Wapping; but before the said James Buchanan had hung the usual Time, some evil-disposed Persons cut him down, and carried him away; and there being Reason to believe that the said James Buchanan was not fully executed, as the Law requires, but is now living; For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the rescuing of the said James Buchanan, His Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually cut the said James Buchanan down) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted hereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Admiralty Office, 29 December, 1738.

And for the further discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Rescue; The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are pleased to promise the following Rewards, to wit, One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover the Person or Persons, that cut the said James Buchanan down, upon Conviction of such Person or Persons; and Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover any of the other Persons concerned in the said Rescue, upon Conviction of such Person or Persons. And for the discovering and bringing to Justice the said James Buchanan, they are likewise pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend the said James Buchanan, so that he may be brought to Justice.

J. Burchett.

Bank, 14 December, 1738.

Upon a Representation from His Majesty's Post-master-General, That it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters, gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails; The Bank of England, to contribute what in them lies to put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significancy or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, That for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will from and after the First Day of January next (instead of Three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable at Seven Days after Sight to ——— or Order, whereby in Case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Indorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners.

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of indorsing them, a Blank Indorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as often as Occasion requires.

12 Dec. 1738.

The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, That on Friday the 12th of January next, they will be ready to sell by Auction to the best Bidder, at the Office of Ordnance in the Tower of London, several Parcels of Breechings, Rope Sponges, Tackle Falls, Tarr'd Rope, Port Ropes, Pole-axes, Funnels of Plate, Powder Horns, Lanthorns, Spades, Shovels, Parchment and Paper Cartridges, Match, Trace, and Thill Harness, Sword Belts, Files and Armorer's Tools, Musquets, Musquettoons, Pistols, Bayonets, Cartouch Boxes, with other old and unserviceable Stores; which may be viewed till the Time of Sale, at the said Office, where printed Lists of the Lots will be deliver'd to such as call for them.

Westminster Bridge Office, Jan. 3, 1738.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners appointed for building a Bridge at Westminster, are to meet at their Office in Duke-street, Westminster, on Wednesday the 17th Instant, by Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.
